APPLICATION CRITERIA

Please see the Application for turn in dates and times for 2020.

Habitat’s primary goal is to provide simple, decent and affordable homes to qualified low to moderate income individuals and families. Habitat for Humanity evaluates all applications based on three criteria:

1) The applicants’ need for housing.
2) The ability of the applicant to repay the Habitat mortgage.
3) The applicants’ willingness to partner with Habitat.

Each of these criteria will be explained below. Before applying or re-applying for a Habitat home, please consider whether you meet the other qualifications listed below. If you do not meet these guidelines, your application will be denied.

NEED FOR HOUSING

You must be able to demonstrate one or more of the following concerning your current housing situation:

- Housing conditions that are physically inadequate.
- Housing conditions that are unsafe: physically and environmentally.
- Overcrowded housing situation.
- Housing that is too expensive – more than 30% of your monthly income.

Remember, just because your current housing is rented or subsidized by the government, it does not automatically mean that it is substandard.

Habitat volunteers will come to visit you and your household in your home to verify your need for simple, decent, and affordable housing. We will ask some questions as well as talk to you about why you are applying. At that time, you can also ask any questions you might still have about the program.

ABILITY TO PAY THE MORTGAGE AND EXPENSES

Your total household income* must be enough to cover your mortgage payment, (which includes principal, interest, taxes, insurance, and HOA fees) utilities, and maintenance expenses. But your total household income must not exceed 60% of the area median as defined annually by the federal government. Please see chart below. This will change annually. The below numbers are effective as of April 2019.

Examples of income include:

- Income from employment
- Social Security Income
- Supplemental Security Income (SSI)
- Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI)
- Child support
- Alimony/spousal support
- Any other form of income. (Including, but not limited to, repayment of a debt, interest income, pension, retirement, etc.)

The applicant and co-applicant must make at least the minimum amount listed above for each household size. Then all the income received by any adults (persons 18 and older) who will be living in the Habitat home is counted and must not exceed the maximum amount listed above.

While your credit does not have to be perfect, you need to demonstrate that you can pay your bills on time. Habitat will look at your payment history, as shown on your credit report, as well as the total amount of debt you have and the amount of any collections or judgements. Below are some of our criteria for these:

- Collections: no more than $1,500 total
- Judgements: no more than $500 total
- Debt-to-income: 13% maximum consumer debt
- Bankruptcies: 3 years cleared with established good credit after

In addition to pulling a credit report, we will verify your rent history with current and former landlords/property managers.

- 250 hours must be completed before you are assigned to your future home

• 100 or 150 of the total 500 hours must be completed by the household on the construction site.

Most of our neighborhood developments have a Homeowner’s Association, which is responsible for taking care of any common areas, such as open space or streets. You must be willing to play an active role and cooperate with other homeowners.

Application Frequently Asked Questions

Do I qualify for a Habitat house?
Unfortunately, Habitat will not be able to tell you if you qualify for the Homeownership Program until we have a completed application. Please look at our qualification guidelines, these are the criteria we use to determine qualification for the program and we typically do not make exceptions.

Do you have to be a US Citizen or have permanent residency?
Yes, you must be a legal permanent resident of the United States or US Citizen and be able to provide proof of legal residency, such as US Passport, Permanent Resident Card, US Birth Certificate, Certificate of Naturalization, etc.

Who can be a part of my household? How is my household size determined?
Only individuals who are currently living in the household can be considered when determining household size and the number of bedrooms the applicant qualifies for. A child is only considered regarding household size if the applicant has at least 50% custody of that child. We do occasionally make exceptions and want to make sure that household members are not discounted when inappropriate. If a person is pregnant during the application process, the unborn child will be counted towards household size. Please be sure to explain any household size situations in your application.

Can I choose the number of bedrooms I want in a Habitat house?
No. Habitat determines the house size based on the household size and make up. The applicant will receive a bedroom and will be expected to share with their spouse or partner. Adult couples who are not the applicants will get their own bedroom. Two children of the same gender are expected to share one bedroom if they are 3 years apart in age or less. Habitat is happy to make accommodations when needed.

What are the qualifications for the Homeownership Program?
Please see the attached Application Criteria Sheet for more details on this question!

Will a credit check be required?
YES! In addition to credit checks — rental history, sex offender check, background check, income verification, tax returns and bank statements will be reviewed.

What if I have student debt?
Having student debt does not automatically disqualify you from our Homeownership Program. The amount of student debt, your current income, and the other debt that you may have will be evaluated during the application process to determine if your debt-to-income ratio is within our limit of 13% consumer debt.

What if I have collections or judgements on my credit report?
Habitat does review credit reports. Our qualification guidelines have limits on these items. Our limit on collections summed is $1,500 and judgements summed is $500 total.
What if I have a bankruptcy, a foreclosure, or major repossessions in my past?
We are happy to see people improving and cleaning up their credit. Generally, we require three years to have passed since your bankruptcy, foreclosure or large repossessions were discharged.

If I own another home, can I still qualify for Habitat’s Homeownership Program?
Our requirements are that you do not own a home anywhere else. This applies even if you are a partial owner or co-signer, even if you do not live in that other home. If you owned a home more than 3 years ago, you may still qualify.

What types of income are counted when I apply?
All forms of permanent income are generally included as a part of the household income and will be considered. All income must be documented. If an applicant or household member is receiving child support or alimony (and want it to be considered), they must include a copy of the court order for those payments within their application. If an applicant or household member is receiving SSI, Disability, TANF, or Social Security, they must provide a copy of a current monthly statement within their application paperwork. Income must also be somewhat predictable and lasting. Temporary income, or income that is not likely to continue past 3 years’ time is not considered.

How many years do I have to pay on my mortgage?
The length of the mortgage depends upon the sales price of the home and your total income. Generally, they range from 15 to 30 years.

How much will I have to pay each month for my house?
Habitat homeowners pay no more than 30% of their gross monthly income for their house payments. The monthly mortgage payment includes your principal, interest, taxes, insurance, and Homeowner’s Association fee.

Will I be allowed to sell my home?
Yes. HOWEVER, there are some restrictions that vary based on what neighborhood your future home is located. These details will be discussed during the application process.

Can I rent out my Habitat home if I need to move to another place?
No. The legal documents for your Habitat home restrict the use of the property as a rental. All Habitat homes must be owner occupied, meaning you, the owner, MUST live in your house.

Once I’ve completed and turned in an application, what comes next?
Once the deadline for all applications has passed, Habitat will begin reviewing applications to see if they meet our financial qualifications. If everything meets our qualifications, you’ll move on to the next step, which is to attend a required meeting for the neighborhood in which you want to live. After that, Habitat staff will arrange a short interview with you in your current housing situation. After the home visit, Habitat will review all the information gathered throughout the process and determine who will asked to join the Habitat Homeownership Program.

The entire process from turning in a paper application to receiving an acceptance or denial letter is considered our application process.
How long does the application process take? How long before I can purchase a house?
The entire application process may take several months from the close of the annual application period. If you are selected, the building process averages another twelve to twenty-four months. Habitat’s ability to build houses depends greatly upon financial donations, the availability of land and on volunteer labor. All these things affect the length of time it takes to complete the application process and to build a house.

What type of houses does Habitat build and where are they?
Habitat homes are:

- New
- Used
- Stand alone
- Duplex
- Triplex
- 2-story
- 3-story
- Single level

Regardless of what type of home Habitat builds, we will make sure it is in great shape before we sell it to you. If you refuse a home, you will be dropped to the bottom of the list; if you refuse a second home you are dropped from the program.

Our homes are located throughout our service area of Washington County.

What if I have some issues that I know will come up on my criminal background check?
Habitat does background checks on all adult household members. Household members will sign background release forms included as a part of their application. A criminal history does not automatically disqualify an applicant; any issues that come up in a background check will be dealt with on an individual basis.

What interest rate does Habitat offer?
Habitat cannot guarantee any exact interest rate. All we can guarantee is that your monthly mortgage payment will be affordable to you based on your income.

Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

Willamette West Habitat for Humanity, Inc. (WWHFH) may wish to obtain a "consumer report" from a "consumer reporting agency" when considering your request for selection into the WWHFH home ownership program and for permission to obtain a mortgage.

A "consumer report" is any written, oral, or other communication of any information by a "consumer reporting agency" bearing on a consumer's credit worthiness, credit standing and credit capacity. This information is collected for the purpose of serving as a factor in making decisions regarding my request for permission to obtain a mortgage or an equity line of credit.

The terms "consumer," "consumer reporting agency," and "consumer report" are defined in the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), which applies to you. Under the FCRA, you are a "consumer." A "consumer reporting agency" is a person or business unit that, for monetary fees, dues, or on a cooperative nonprofit basis, regularly assembles or evaluates consumer credit information or other information on consumers to furnish "consumer reports" to others, such as WWHFH.

If WWHFH obtains a "consumer report" about you, and if it considers any information in the report when making a decision that directly and adversely affects you, you will be provided with:

✓ notice of the decision
✓ contact information for the consumer reporting agency that furnished the report to WWHFH
✓ notice of your rights under FCRA to obtain a free copy of your consumer report and to dispute with a consumer reporting agency the accuracy or completeness of any information in a consumer report furnished by the agency.

You may also contact the Federal Trade Commission about your rights under FCRA.

Before WWHFH can obtain a "consumer report" about you, you must give your consent in writing. After you have read this page completely, please sign the previous page, which allows you to give your consent.

NOTE: For the text of the Fair Credit Reporting Act, please reference:

http://www.ftc.gov/os/statutes/fcra.htm
The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program; or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The Federal Agency that monitors compliance with this law concerning this company is the Federal Trade Commission, with offices at: FTC Regional Office for the Northwest Region, 915 Second Ave, Room 2896 Seattle, WA 98174 or Federal Trade Commission, Equal Credit Opportunity, Washington, DC 20580.

You need not disclose income from alimony, child support or separate maintenance payment if you choose not to do so. However, because we operate a Special Purpose Credit Program, we may request and require, in order to determine an applicant's eligibility for the program and the affordable mortgage amount, information regarding the applicant's marital status; alimony, child support, and separate maintenance income; and the spouse's financial resources.
